SUPERVISOR DIMITRIJEVIC SEES INCREASE IN CITIZEN PARTICIPATION ON 2012 COUNTY BUDGET

Thanks constituents for attending two budget listening sessions this week

Milwaukee, WI – Supervisor Marina Dimitrijevic released the following statement regarding her Town Hall meetings held this week on the 2012 County Budget:

“It’s my pleasure to thank the many people I represent in District 4 who attended one of my two listening sessions this week on the County Executive's 2012 Recommended Budget. Participation in these meetings was higher than usual, and we had a thorough discussion of the upcoming budget decisions that face the County Board. There has also been a great response to the recent constituent surveys I conducted on the County Budget.

“It is clear that the people of the 4th District, and Milwaukee County as a whole, are watching this budget process very closely. They are more engaged than ever! I will continue to review their concerns while working toward a balanced approach in this budget.”

Since taking office in 2004, Supervisor Dimitrijevic has now participated in 127 town hall meetings, budget listening sessions and issue-oriented public meetings.
